Merriman-Brewster.

Travis Park Methodist Church was a scene of an attractive wedding last evening when Miss Jessie Goodwin Brewster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewster, became the bride of Harry E. Merriman of Hondo, the Rev. C. Wesley Webb performing the double ring ceremony. The church was artistically decorated for the occasion, the altar being banked in ferns and palms, with festoons of ivy entwined around the cushioned fully paneled walls. The pews for the family. Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. F. B. Ricks, cousin of the bride, sang "On Fair, on Sweet, and Holy," after which Miss Stella Hoffmeyer played Lohengrin's wedding march for the entrance of the bride. The party in the following order: Miss Anna Hoffmeyer and George Carle of Hondo; Miss Minnie Polhouse and Earl Starnes of Hondo; and Miss Marie Merriman of Hondo and Lee Davis. The bride's maids were dressed in white, wearing white beaded skirts, lace trimmed, and white tulle. The bridesmaids wore white tulle trimmed in rose-geometric, and they carried bouquets of sweet peas and ferns tied with large tulle bows; next entered the groom of honor, Mr. Conrad Frey of Fredericksburg, wearing a frock of yellow tulle and tulle and a white hat of tulle with yellow sweet peas; he carried an arm bouquet of white sweet peas and ferns tied with white tulle. Mrs. Frey entered with Lina de Montel of Hondo. The maid of honor came next, dressed in rose tulle made Colonial style with a hat of white tulle and sweet peas; she carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and ferns tied with white tulle. Next came the little flower girl, Miss Roberta Ricks, in a dress of white tulle and lace, and a basket of white roses which she scattered in the path of the bride. The bride entered with her father and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, R. Starnes of Hondo. The brides were dressed in white tulle and lace, with an overdress of real lace and ruffles of tulle and pearl trimmings; the long court train was caught at the shoulder with pearls, and she wore a tulle veil with pleated ends. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party, relatives and intimate friends. About 100 guests were present. On a table next a venetian lace cover was the bride's cake under charge of Madames Rufe Crain and Ernest Rife. The reception rooms were decorated in ivy and cut flowers, ferns and tulle. Misses Clara Hoffmeyer, Marie Fusselman, Dee Crow and Marie Davis presided at the punch bowl and the bride's book was under charge of Miss Margaret Schulte and Miss M. E. Hutchinson. Assisting the brides were Mesdames John M. Davis, W. J. Goodwin and C. H. Brewster, Lydia Goodwin. Mr. and Mrs. Merriman left on a late train for St. Louis, and after June 1 will be in Hondo. The bride's going away gown was a midnight blue tulle coat suit with hat, shoes and gloves of gray.—San Antonio Express, Saturday, April 12.

Economics Clubs Convention.

Austin, Texas, April 12, 1916.
Dear Girls:
It is too late now to get railroad transportation, but all the railroads are going to put on very low excursion rates to San Antonio for "Fiesta Week" April 22nd to 29th, and I hope every girl will take advantage of the chance to attend the convention and see the Battle of Flowers.
We will meet in the pink room of the... on Friday, April 28 and open our convention. We will lunch at the Mexican restaurant at 12 o'clock and then on have a trip around to see the Missions before the parade is started. We will have seats upon a nice big balcony where we can secure comfortable seats for 25c each. After the flower parade and the battle of flowers we will see some of the city. We will meet again in convention Saturday morning and adjourn at noon for lunch at the Guntur Hotel. We will be guests of Miss Eleanor Brackenridge Saturday afternoon at her home. We will have a very interesting and that visit will be worth the expense of coming to San Antonio. There will be plenty to see every moment of the time, and we are going to have an excellent program too.
Now, every one try to come who can. As we will not secure free transportation you may be represented by as many delegates as you wish to send. There will be no restriction as to delegates. I am going to look for a big crowd. Remember, should you miss me or the chaperone at the station you are to go straight to the Guntur Hotel where you will be cared for.

Be sure to bring a written report, and be sure that you have some club work to report.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. J. L. LANDRETH.

Dr. and Mrs. Liles Entertain.

The doors of Dr. and Mrs. Liles residence were thrown open to a few hours of enjoyment Saturday night in honor of the Senior Class of Yancey High School.
As the guests arrived they were ushered into the music room which was decorated in blue and gold, by the little misses Eunice and Willie Bell McClaugherty, where Mr. Albert Crandall rendered several piano selections.
Conundrums were then given by each one present and Miss Hazel McLeod succeeded in guessing the largest number and was awarded the prize. Small books were then passed around entitled "My First Poem" with such words as Mrs. Liles saw fit to insert at the heading of each page. Miss Abbie Mae Williams seemed to be quite a poet for she won the prize.
After several games had been played the guests were then ushered into the beautifully decorated dining room where a salad course was served.
Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Liles, Misses Abbie Mae Williams, Hazel McLeod, Bertha Childress, Oms Bandy, their guest Miss Mabel Hollaway and little Misses Eunice and Willie Bell McClaugherty, Messrs. Albert Crandall, Ernest Wiemers, Henry Hardt, Stanley McAnelly and Roland Wilson.

Base Ball News.

Base ball enthusiasts, and that means everybody in Hondo, are planning to put a strong team in the field again this year. Last year this town had the winning team in this western country, and the purpose this year is to put out even a stronger team than has ever previously worn a Hondo uniform.
A meeting of enthusiasts was held this week and preliminary steps taken to organize the team. We understand the business men of Hondo have guaranteed the necessary financial backing so essential to a successful team, and an early closing agreement, similar to the one entered into last year, will again be in force so as to enable all employees to attend the games.
That there is base ball talent among the young men of Hondo has been proven on many a hard-fought field, and that they will win new laurels on the diamonds the coming season is the confident belief of our people.
The team, we understand, will begin practicing immediately, and about the first of May the stentorian voice of the umpire to "play ball" in the first match game of the season will be heard at de Montel Park.

Ralph Windrow as a Debater.

Ralph Windrow of this city who is attending the San Marcos Baptist Academy is once more honored. In a debate that took place at the Academy Monday, April third, between the Academy and Central, Ralph displayed his oratorical talent for the second time this year.
Resolved: "That the United States should adopt Wilson's plan of preparedness," was the subject of debate. Ralph upheld the negative side of the question, which as all people who have read up on the question know is the unpopular side, but his convincing arguments and easy flow of words held the audience spell bound. It could well be seen that his speech was carefully worked out and it was not without deep thought and careful observation that it gained as high a pitch as it really did. Judging from the amount of applause he received when he addressed the chairman, Ralph was undoubtedly the favorite of the audience.
This young orator is a boy of whom Hondo and the Baptist Academy can be very proud. He is a favorite in the school and all who know him look up to him as a model boy. He is an excellent student and his record in the Academy is an enviable one. We look forward to great accomplishments from this youth.

This debate in which Ralph and his colleagues won the unanimous decision, was the first annual contest between Central Institute and the Academy. It was a pronounced defeat for Central.

Drilling Rig of Hondo Oil and Gas Company Due to Arrive To-Day.

J. W. Kemp and Lee Lynam due to arrive here from the Alta Vista field to-day, where they have been for several days looking after the loading of the rig which is to drill the oil well on the Toby Koch tract.
They were delayed a day or two longer than they had expected, caused by the railroad company failing to get the cars set. However, the rig is loaded now and has been shipped and if it makes proper connections in San Antonio it is to arrive here Saturday or Sunday.

The drilling crew has also been in San Antonio for several days waiting for the rig to be shipped and they are expected to arrive sometime today. Just as soon as the car is set on the train track here work will start at once carrying the machinery to the new location and will be set up and the well started at once.

Scholastic Census.

The scholastic census for the Hondo Independent School District for the coming school year shows a total of 678 scholastics, against 647 for the previous year, an increase of 26 scholastics for the coming school year.
The greatest increase is shown in the number of white scholastics, 21 more names appearing on the census rolls just completed over the previous year; on this year's rolls Mexican scholastics show an increase of 7, while colored scholastics show a decrease of 2.

Last year Mexican and colored scholastics combined outnumbered the white scholastics by 9; this year the white scholastics outnumber the combined Mexican and colored scholastics by 7.

Meredith Carried to Pen.

The penitentiary contractor passed through Hondo Wednesday evening with a bunch of convicts and recruited his number with W. R. Meredith, who has been in the county jail since his conviction was affirmed by the appellate court several weeks ago. As there are five other cases pending against Meredith in the district court which will meet in Hondo on Monday, May 1st for its spring term, it is probable he will be brought back here at that time to answer to the other indictments.

D'Hanis Oil Prospects.

San Antonio, Texas, April 11.—Encouraged over the outlook for a good oil strike, A. S. Busby, president of the Busby-Howard Oil and Gas company, is back from D'Hanis, where work is in progress in the drilling of a well. This well is on the Sathoff lease, and Mr. Busby says indications point to a good producing well being brought in.—Austin American.

Hondo High 4, D'Hanis High 2.

Tuesday April 11th, Hondo crossed bats with D'Hanis on the latter's diamond.
D'Hanis started off in earnest, scoring one run in the first inning and their second and last run in the third inning.
Red Carter on the mound for Hondo, although a little wild, pitched excellent ball, letting the heavy hitting D'Hanis team down with one scratch hit.
seventh when E. Leinweber walked, C. Rothe got hit then the captain of the team came to bat and the crowd yelled for a hit. The first two were balls but the next one was seen flying in left field and "cap" stopped on third.
With the score tied and a hit to win A. Rothe singled, thus winning the game.
Batteries: Hondo, Carter and Leinweber; D'Hanis, O and R. Kitch and Reinhart.

This Car Gives The Utmost in its Class

There's no need to argue "Sixes" these days. They have proved themselves and won. So let's consider only "Sixes" at or near the price of Saxon "Six".

Measured by feature attractions or performance records even the most critical can hardly question the greater merit of Saxon "Six". Every refinement attests its superb excellence. Every detail is typical of the costly car.

You men who keep pace with advance in motor car building should see this new series Saxon "Six" at once. It will surprise you with its finished perfection—and amaze you with its road performance.

Saxon "Six" embodies developments that mean much to you—electric starting and lighting system; Torsion axles and full Timken bearings throughout the chassis; helical bevel gears; improved body finish of over-new lustre; roomier rear seat; broad, covered, aluminum bound running boards and floor boards, and 17 other improvements. Come in at once and examine this fine car.

Reasons Why Six Cylinders are Superior
By C. R. Gaines

Two years ago the six-cylinder car was a star out of reach of the average buyer, he not being able to enjoy the pleasures to be obtained in a smooth-running Six. Now the BUICK SIX is within the reach of all who are able to afford a car at all. Dependability is there. He who owns a BUICK SIX has smooth-running, less jars and jerks, therefore, much less wear on tires, machine and passengers. That the motor will last longer is a noted fact. The Six has the small cylinders and continuous pull that are not to be had in a four-cylinder car. Those who have used both will never go back to the Fours. To enjoy the money you invest in a car, stop study and think of the value the car you buy will be worth a year from now. Should you make a mistake and buy a car that is already out of date, Where are the two-cylinder cars today! Buy a Buick and have a car that is up-to-the-minute. All Buick cars are now Sixes—the car that sells. America's most standard car. Let me show you the 1916 greatest value.

Addition to Athletic Notes.
We wish to call attention to several items in the report of the athletic team published in last week's Anvil. In the junior 50-yard dash, place for which Hondo was given credit, was won by Lindeberg of New Orleans, who won it in spite of the fact that the starter gave the first start of about two yards. According to the report the last two were out yet, and so we suppose that Hondo boy is still on his way to the line.
Senior high jump credit for second place was given to Heyen of Vandenberg, whereas it was won by Heyen of Fountain. Heyen should, also, have had a place in the broad jump, Hondo "did it over."
New Fountain school, although only two entrants who were made up by one week's training and of pure "country spunk," won the points that it was not given for.
We appreciate the fact that the schools, as well as the events, can best participate, are to be crowded out in the Inter-School Meets.

PINES' PROPOSAL

By JANE OSBORN.

"Honest, Dave, you've got to give me time," the red-haired advertising manager of the furniture firm of Pines, Pines & Roseworthy was saying to Miss Drew on what he referred to in his note beforehand as a "pressing matter of business."

"You sure did give me a surprise. Why, I'd no more idea that you had taken a fancy to me than that—that that we'd sell out of refrigerators in February. If the Morning Bugle was to send over here with the statement that we could double our Sunday advertising space for the same rate as we pay now I wouldn't have been more surprised. Give me time, Dave. When? Oh, let me see. Suppose you wait till after Sunday. I'll take next Sunday to dope it out. No, I can't. You any sooner. I have thought 'so little about getting married. I'll have to drop around to see my friends that have gone and done it and see what they have to say about it. Drop in next Monday at about this time, if you're still interested. And, whatever I decide, you and I'll always be good friends, won't we?"

"Say, that was kind o' clever copy. If I do say it, and that idea of yours to leave the chairs and tables on that special sale out in the rain for two nights beforehand just did the business. If they had come over in the Mayflower, they couldn't have looked more like the real thing. Oh, that's so, it's Monday. No, I hadn't forgotten—had it down on my desk pad, but I guess I'd have remembered any way."

"Tell you my answer? Well, don't be impatient. Take it slowly, Dave, and then you'll see why I've decided as I have. You'll understand better. You know I wanted to handle the proposition squarely. As I told you it wasn't just an ordinary 'Will you marry me?' when David Pine asked red-head Peg Drew to be junior partner. You know I appreciate the compliment."

"So, I started off Sunday morning to see the girls I went to school with—Aggie Dayton, Pearl Hite, Julie Saunders and Moll Braum. They've all married and thought they'd give me the dope I was after. And I guess I got it."

"Well, Aggie—I went to her house first. Knew she'd be at home. When a woman has six children and a good-for-nothing husband she doesn't stand much chance of being out on Sunday morning. I was out of breath by the time I got there, four flights up and such a racket! Youngest was cutting its teeth and oldest was yelling because he'd just had to have his baby teeth pulled out. She was mighty glad to see me, though. She hadn't seen any of the girls for years. You know how it is when a girl needs a friend—she usually can't find any. I didn't have to ask her how her marriage had panned out. I tried to cheer her up, though. She had been a good housekeeper once and I asked her why she didn't try this new game of economic independence, if her husband didn't earn enough to get out and earn it herself. But how could a girl like Aggie get out with six children hanging at her apron strings?"

"Well, then I went to see Pearl Hite, and do you know I was almost scared to go in. Those butlers in plum-colored uniforms always did make me feel shy. Pearl sent down by her French maid for me to come up. She was having her coffee in her boudoir and, do you know, I hadn't been there ten minutes before she burst out crying and told me all about it. She's miserable. Husband's gone off with a vaudeville tango queen and it's all they can do to keep the scandal out of the papers."

"Next place I went was Julie's, and do you know it wasn't till I had reached her apartment that I knew she'd left her husband, though she said it had been in all the papers. It wasn't that he had done anything. She just couldn't get along with him; says that for a woman of independence and an 'emancipated intellect' marriage is a state of bondage. She said it was stifling her soul. So now she is studying law and says she's going to devote herself to making divorce easier in the state. 'Eventually,' she said 'marriage will be like any other contract, binding only so long as both parties agree.'"

"What about Moll? Oh, didn't I tell you? Poor thing! She seems to have been happy, but you know she married a German—Otto Braum was his name—and when the first rearviewers were called out he joined his colors in the fatherland, and it was only last month after all these weeks of anxiety that she learned that he had been killed in the trenches. So she's gone over to Berlin to join the Red Cross to try to forget her own misery. Poor Moll! And she used to be so light-hearted."

"You are not going, Dave? Why, you look kind o' disgruntled. You don't think you'll wait for my answer? Well, if that is the way you feel about it. I thought maybe when you heard you would want to go home with me and have the little dinner that Aunt Mandy has been making—real old Virginia chicken and corn bread."

"You see, Dave, after I had heard about those four girls and seen what a failure marriage had been for them I just wanted to try my luck and show folks that marriage is a pretty good invention after all. I've just been dying to tell you all day, Dave, but I wanted to get you guessing."

"VETERANS FIRST" IS OFFICIAL SLOGAN CONFEDERATE REUNION IN BIRMINGHAM

View of a few Birmingham Skyscrapers, where the Confederate Veterans meet May 16, 17 and 18.

"Veterans first."

This is the slogan that has been adopted by the entertainment committee of Birmingham, Alabama, for the forthcoming reunion of the Confederate Veterans to be held in Birmingham May 16-17-18. The veterans that bared their breasts to the cannons' merciless fire during the late unpleasantness will be cared for above all other considerations. Everything has been planned and all other propositions set aside in order that the Birmingham gathering memorable in the history of Confederate reunions will be greatly excelled by the character of the hospitality and the warmth of greetings to be offered the veterans in May.

Through the kindness of the government of the United States the committee has secured the loan of over 6000 cots, which will be placed in the magnificent buildings at the state fair grounds for the veterans who will accept the care and complete hospitality of the City of Birmingham. The veterans will be provided with every convenience. A commissary in charge of experts in the several necessary departments will be maintained. The camp grounds are accessible by several car lines from the center of the city. It is contemplated that the official camp grounds will be the rendezvous for a majority of the veterans visiting Birmingham.

That every detail looking to their comfort and care will be exercised, was indicated by Morris W. Bush, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who announced that the cool, airy buildings will be arranged so as to be perfectly comfortable for the heroes that are expected. The food will be the best and every function exercised to provide every necessity.

Aside from the magnificent care which will be showered upon the veterans at the camp grounds extensive plans have been arranged for their entertainment. The parade will be composed of automobiles and automobile trucks so that every veteran that cares to may ride during the parade. This will relieve the veterans, many of them feeble, of the cruel necessity of walking during the long parade.

A Healing Salve for Burns, Chapped Hands and Sore Nipples.

As a healing salve for burns, sores, sore nipples and chapped hands Chamberlain's Salve is most excellent. It allays the pain of a burn almost instantly, and unless the injury is very severe, heals the parts without leaving a scar. Price, 25 cents. For sale by All Dealers.

GRADING EGGS FOR MARKET

Extra First-Class Variety Weigh at Least Twenty-Seven Ounces to Dozen and Are Clean.

In large city markets eggs are usually graded into five classes. These grades are designated as follows: Extra firsts, firsts, seconds, thirds, checks and leakers.

Eggs that go into the extra first class weigh at least 27 ounces to the dozen, are clean, of strong shell, and uniform in size, shape and color. The air cell must be no larger than a dime.

Firsts must compare with extra firsts on all points, excepting size. Eggs in this class must weigh at least 24 ounces to the dozen.

Eggs that are classed as seconds weigh at least 22 ounces to the dozen. The air cell may be the size of a quarter dollar. Eggs in this classification must be clean, and uniform in shape and color.

All sound eggs that fall below the three classifications given above are termed thirds. This class takes all eggs that weigh less than 22 ounces to the dozen, all dirty eggs and eggs that show large air cells and dark yolks. The double-yolked eggs and those of poor shape also go into this class.

Checks and leakers are cracked and broken eggs. A check is one cracked, but not sufficiently to allow the contents to escape. A leaker is one broken so badly that the contents escape. Checks and leakers do not stand shipment, and should always be used or marketed at home while strictly fresh.

In candling many eggs fall below any of these classifications given above and are a total loss. All rotten eggs, those that show blood rings, mold spots, and those that are badly soiled are unfit for food and are dumped.

In conclusion, it may be stated that the supply of extra firsts and firsts never equals the demand, and that more thirds, checks and leakers are offered than can be disposed of.

A POSITIVE STATEMENT
BY A BIG BUSINESS MAN

"Neglect of Apparently Unimportant Conditions Wrecks Many a Healthy Growing Business"

W. S. ELKIN, JR.
a prominent druggist of Atlanta, Ga., is authority for the above positive statement. In explaining this statement he asked two questions and offered one suggestion.

If a growing healthy business turns and begins to run down hill, what is the condition of the owner's health? Almost always, unusually bad.

What was the first cause of his poor health? Constipation.

This constipation could have been avoided by taking Rex-Li Orderlies occasionally. They are a pleasant candy tablet laxative which can be used by men, women or children with the best results.

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative.

Made My Life Worth Living

"I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me," writes Mrs. L. Dunlap, of Oak Grove, Mich. "I have suffered with pains in my back and under my shoulder blade for a number of years, also with a poor appetite and constipation. I tried all of the remedies that I heard of, and a number of doctors, but got no relief. Finally a friend told me to try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I got a bottle of them and they soon helped my stomach; by their gentle action my bowels became more regular. Today I feel like praising them to all who suffer as I did, for they have cured me and made my life worth living."

It must be awful to be an aviator when something goes wrong with the machinery and he can't blame it on his wife.

A prudent mother is always on the watch for symptoms of worms in her children. Paleeness, lack of interest in play, and peevishness is the signal for White's Cream Vermifuge. A few doses of this excellent remedy puts an end to the worms and the child soon acts naturally. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Why should any full-grown man's opinion depend wholly upon what somebody else thinks about it?

Whenever You Need a General Tonic
Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well-known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

Our observation is that even when women have nothing to talk about they don't let it hinder them.

To Drive Out Malaria
And Build Up The System
Take The Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents

"I have used Vinol for many run-down, weak or emaciated patients with benefit. One young woman was so weak and ill she could hardly creep to my door for aid. is essential to health, comfort and appearance. Have you ever noticed a strained look on your face? Usually this comes from eye-strain. More wrinkles are caused by eye-strain than by old age. Two cases were placed on the docket of the district court this week, to-wit:
G. W. Hester vs. S. J. Howell, suit on note and foreclosure of lien; and G. W.
Hester vs. Lizzie Burnett and husband,
W. H. Burnett, and W. J. Williams, suit on note and foreclosure of lien.

The two weeks' revival meeting by Mrs. Bessie Williams as preacher and Miss Ollie Roe as singer, closed last Monday night with a large congregation and many were turned away for want of room. There were about 85 professions, some were converted some reclaimed, and some were sanctified. Nine joined the Nazarene Church. Others contemplate coming in later. We are much encouraged.
Rev. J. T. Horgan.

K. Cameron, one of the oil men, left Tuesday for Rusk in response to a message that his mother, who had been visiting in that city, was very ill. Another message intercepted
Mr. Cameron at Lufkin, stating that the mother had died Wednesday. The remains were shipped to Austin for interment. On account of bad train connections Mr. Cameron failed to reach Austin in time for the funeral.
He has the sympathy of all who know him in this, his greatest sorrow.

MRS. MAGDALENA SCHMIDT.
Again it has become our sad lot to chronicle the death of one whose past life was that of a neighbor and friend to us and all the people of Lacoste and its vicinity; Mrs. Emil Schmidt is no more among the living.

Mrs. Schmidt's maiden name was Magdalena Soltner, she was the only sister of Geo. Soltner who preceded her in death by a few months.
She was born in Wittenheim, Elsass, Germany, July 27, 1851, and died in Lacoste, Texas, March 21, 1916, at 3 o'clock p. m. She was therefore 64 years, 3 months and 27 days old, when she was called to the unknown land beyond the grave.

Mrs. Schmidt came to America as a baby a little over a year old and her parents sent their lot with Castros Colorado later part of the year 1852. Her mother died when Mrs. Schmidt was nine years old, leaving her and brother to the care of their father, who in time died also for many years. She was happily married to Mr. Emil Schmidt in the St. Louis Catholic Church in Castroville, September 22, 1868. The young married couple made their home near Idexville later on where they lived, and were loved and respected by their neighbors, for over 30 years. After Mr. Schmidt had accumulated for himself and wife a competency, sufficient for their needs they moved to Lacoste where they have now resided for many years.

Mrs. Schmidt was laid to rest in the St. Mary's Cemetery Saturday, April 1, 1916. Rev. Father John Heinzelmann performed the last sad rites of the Catholic Church, at the grave. Although the roads were in bad shape following the heavy rains of the previous night, a very large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives followed the bier, showing the esteem in which she was held by those who knew her.

Mrs. Schmidt was confined to her bed for many months, and her death came as the relieving Angel to her, although stricken down with sorrow, her husband, and near relatives and friends.

A good woman has gone to her reward, may she rest in Peace.
The Ledger sends its condolence to the grief stricken husband, and to her friends and relatives, and prays that they may adjust themselves to the will of Him, whose doings are, although uncomprehensible to us, are always to the best.

Profit in Raising Hogs.
G. E. Morris of Aulene, Texas, R. F. D. No. 6, the past season fattened for the market 40 hogs and his experience is an encouragement for every farmer who plans raising hogs. These pigs were dropped during the month of May 14—June 14, 1915, they were grazed on three irrigated acres of alfalfa, the alfalfa had first been mowed three times for hay. January 14 they were put on feed and all the feed had to be bought. Mr. Morris proposed finishing them on corn alone; but before commencing his feeding he called in consultation S. A. Minear, County Demonstration Agent. Mr. Minear recommended a more balanced ration. Corn, ground milo, wheat bran, and cotton seed meal were the feeds decided upon. They were fed corn alone, the amount being gradually increased from the beginning January 14, to February 2. Then cotton seed meal and wheat bran were added to the ration. February 14 the bran was replaced by milo maize. Then 6 days later, on the 20th the cotton seed meal was replaced by bran. On the 24th corn was eliminated from the feed. Three pounds of corn, 2 1-2 of milo, 2 of bran, and 1-3 to 1-2 of cotton seed meal were the daily amounts of each kind of feed fed per head during the time each particular kind of feed was used. March 7 the hogs were sold on the local yards at $7.50 per hundred weight. The same day they would have brought more on the Ft. Worth market, but Mr. Morris was satisfied with the safe offer of his immediate home market. The corn used in the feed cost fifty cents a bushel, the bran $1.25 a hundred, the cotton seed meal $1.75 a hundred. The milo was purchased in two different lots. The first cost $15.00 a ton. The second lot, on account of being slightly damaged by the weevil, was purchased for $9.00 a ton. The estimated money cost up to the beginning of the feeding period was $1.00 per head. No allowance was made for labor and care.

Mr. Morris did all the work himself and wanted the profits of the proposition to be considered his wages for the time he worked.
Thirty-six of the hogs were marketed four, were kept for home use. The average weight of those sold was 182 pounds. The average money cost was $4.18, the average selling price $13.65, average gain $9.47, total gain $349.90. The hogs when sold were about 9 months old and Mr. Morris' reward for his efforts in preparing his pigs for the market was $349.90 in money and his family supply of meat for 12 months. It would be interesting to know the market value of these hogs at the beginning of the feeding period, so it could be definitely determined how much Mr. Morris received for his labor the 53 days he was feeding his hogs.

The experience of Mr. Morris can be duplicated and even improved upon by any other farmer. It certainly can be improved upon by the farmer who grows his own feeds. At the present time there is no more profitable line of farming than hog raising.
G. M. GARREN.
There is no to-morrow.

Sabinal Sentinel Siftings.
We are glad to report Oscar Balzen improving. With the skillful care of Dr. Campbell and Miss Billingsley as well as his own efforts he is beginning to improve.—Knappa Cor.

Miss Lucy Hoag who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoag, returned to her home in Uvalde.—Knappa Cor.

Mr. Berry of Squirrel Creek, the watermelon man, was here Monday. He says that at his home they had about seven inches of rain.

Miss Adela Reinhardt of San Antonio returned home Tuesday evening after a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reinhardt, and her sister, Mrs. Arthur Rothe, at Seco.

Mr. W. V. Smith and family and his mother and sister, Miss G. Smith, went to Hondo Saturday evening on a visit.

Rev. J. E. Buck and Mr. W. W. Isom and Misses Lois Buck and Ruth Kennedy went to Hondo Tuesday to attend the District M. E. Sunday School Institute.

We learn that Mr. J. S. Corzine shipped a lot of hogs over from Hondo Saturday by local freight to reship from here to Fort Worth and that he paid more for the hogs in Hondo than the local buyers would pay. Mr. Corzine is establishing a reputation for paying good prices for stock. He generally makes money on his shipments too.

Some Youngsters of My Acquaintance.
I am going to tell you a story,
It is strange but true,
You may not believe it but I do,
That this may be a good lesson to you.

A man preached to a congregation once,
And when he got through,
He passed his hat around,
He didn't get anything in it,
But he got his hat back,
And he was very thankful for that.

Now some of youngsters don't you go wild,
And be lead astray,
But if you do, in the eyes of the public you will look mighty flat,
And who are you going to blame for that?

Now don't let anyone flatter and disgrace you,
Then if you do it will be a slam to your family and a disgrace to you.

Now a story has been told on some of you,
And I say this much,
It is a sin and a shame if it is true.
HUGO REITZER.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Calron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor wasted in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its helping me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 30 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
